

Help to Solve
the Mystery of Life.

And Much More.

Make the impossible possible

We are looking for you as

Service Engineer (Location Shenzhen)

Service Engineer will execute installation, technical supporting, customer training, trouble shooting and repair to ensure maximum utilization of PI system and improve customer experience.

Your Tasks:

- Responsible for overall service activity in the South of China.
- Technical support on post-sales phase, including technology consulting, operating issues, trouble shooting
- Set up the system, verify it to customer, and provide professional training for customer
- Do a fast inspection and make the decision on how to repair the returned items.
- Responsible for finding root cause, and resolve issues in cooperation with customer, service, RD, Production Division.

Your Profile:

- University degree or above in engineering, electronics, optics, mechanics or automation. Experience in motion controlling is a plus.
- Be proactive, responsible, and independent
- Fluent spoken and written English
- Need Travel
- Be organized, flexible, and able to work under pressure
- Familiar with motion controller and driver
- Service and application experience of more than 3 years in engineering, electronics, optics, mechanics or automation. Experience in motion controlling is a plus.

The future awaits you – at PI

You want to join a company that makes the impossible possible? Then we look forward to your application and a statement about your salary expectations.

Your contact at PI

Ben Tian

Phone +86-21-5187 9298

Email: job@pi-china.cn